

ORTHOPEDICS

Orthopedics is health care that corrects or prevents problems or injuries of the musculoskeletal system — our bones, joints, muscles, tendons, and ligaments. An orthopedist, or orthopedic surgeon, studies, diagnoses, and treats conditions that affect muscles, joints, and bones, such as infections, sports injuries, broken bones, and joint problems. Our specialists are trained to treat all aspects of pediatric orthopedic conditions.

CONDITIONS TREATED

- Bone Fractures
- Bone Infections
- Sports Injuries
- Trauma Related Injuries
- Cerebral Palsy
- Adolescent Hip Disorders
- Hip Preservation
- Limb Length Discrepancies And Other Limb Differences
- Ligament Reconstruction
- Guided Growth

SERVICES

- Arthroscopy
- Bone Fracture Repair Surgery
- Fusion Surgery
- Draining Fluid From Joints
- Limb-Lengthening Surgery

MEDICAL STAFF

Ahmed Thabet-Hagag, MD
Orthopedic Surgeon

Shawn Diamond, MD
Plastic Surgeon

Norman Ward, MD
Orthopedic Surgeon

